Major General John Stiner
Commanding Officer
Joint Special Operations Command
Fort Bragg, North Carolina 28307

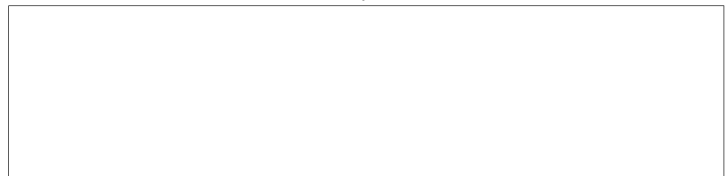

Dear General Stiner:

Recently, several officers from your Command provided a briefing about the operations of the units which comprise the Joint Special Operations Command to a class of newly promoted Agency Senior Intelligence Service Officers. The class was participating in a seminar on "Countering Terrorism as an Agency and Community Issue." The presentations enabled the participants to gain an excellent perception on the role of the military in countering terrorism and particularly the capabilities of your Command. This fitted quite well into subsequent discussions of the U.S. policy options and coordination of activities with the other Community members in this sphere of action.

I want to thank you very much for making this briefing possible and to express my appreciation to the officers noted below for their contributions:

Captain Donald Edwards, USN
Lt. Col. Alden D. Ackels, USA
Lt. Col. Warren H. Corrado, USA
Lt. Col. Lewis H. Burrus, USA
Lt. Col. George W. Odell, USA
Lt. Thomas Moser, USN
Lt. Thomas P. Toohey, USN
Forrest W. Snyder (Agency Liaison Officer)

Sincerely,
